AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

183. Plaintiffs have failed to state a claim against Trans Union upon which relief can be granted.

184. At all relevant times, Trans Union maintained and followed reasonable procedures to avoid violations of the Fair Credit Reporting Act and assure maximum possible accuracy of the information concerning Plaintiffs in preparing consumer reports related to Plaintiffs. Such reasonable procedures extended to the investigation and resolution of any disputed information contained in such reports.

185. Trans Union alleges that any damages to Plaintiffs were caused in whole or in part by intervening or superceding causes.

186. Trans Union at all times acted in compliance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

187. Trans Union has not published any false, inaccurate, or defamatory information to any third party regarding Plaintiffs and has not acted with negligence, malice, or willful intent to injure.

188. Plaintiffs failed to mitigate their alleged damages.

189. Plaintiffs' common law and/or state law claims are barred/preempted by the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

190. At all times, Trans Union acted under a qualified privilege provided in the Fair Credit Reporting Act and the common law.

191. Plaintiffs' claims for exemplary or punitive damages violate the Fourteenth Amendment, the excessive fines clause of the Eighth Amendment, and the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution and the Kansas Constitution.

192. Trans Union, in compliance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act, reasonably and completely reinvestigated and verified, updated, or removed all information disputed by Plaintiffs.

193. To the extent Trans Union may be found liable on all or a portion of Plaintiffs' liability claims, Trans Union would show that Plaintiffs actions or inactions constituted contributory negligence.

194. Trans Union affirmatively pleads that it is entitled to attorney's fees in the event that the Court determines that the Plaintiffs have filed an unsuccessful pleading, motion, or other paper in connection with this action under § 1681n or o of the FCRA in bad faith or for purposes of harassment.

195. In the event that a settlement is reached between Plaintiffs and any other person or entity, Trans Union is entitled to any settlement credits permitted by law.

196. Trans Union is not liable in the capacity in which is has been sued.

197. If Plaintiffs sustained any damages, which is specifically denied, such damages were caused in whole or in part or contributed to by the acts, omissions, negligence or causal fault of Plaintiffs or other persons or entities for whom Trans Union is not responsible, and were not due to or caused by any fault, lack of care, negligence or breach of duty by Trans Union. If it is determined that fault was caused in whole or in part, or contributed to, by the acts, omissions, negligence or causal fault of Plaintiffs or other persons or entities for whom Trans Union is not responsible, and such fault does not act as a complete bar to Plaintiffs' claims against Trans Union, then Trans Union is entitled to an apportionment of all such causal fault and proportionate reduction of any award against it pursuant to K.S.A. § 60-258(a). Trans Union specifically denies any causal fault or negligence on its part and further denies that its conduct had any causal connection with Plaintiffs' alleged damages.

198. Plaintiffs' claims are barred or otherwise limited by the doctrines of waiver, estoppel and laches.

199. Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the statutes of limitations applicable to each count, including but not limited K.S.A. § 60-512, K.S.A. § 60-513 and K.S.A. § 60-514.

200. Plaintiffs have failed to plead their claim for alleged violation of the Kansas Consumer Protection Act, K.S.A. 50-623, et seq. with particularity as required by Burton v. R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., 884 F.Supp. 1515 (D.Kan. 1995).

201. Plaintiffs have failed to plead their claims for alleged fraud and misrepresentation with particularity as required by FRCP 9 and K.S.A. § 60-209.

202. Trans Union would show that it did not make any false representations to Plaintiffs regarding the subject matter of Plaintiffs' claims.

203. Plaintiffs did not justifiably rely to their detriment on any purportedly false representations by Trans Union.

204. Trans Union would show that Plaintiffs' proposed "Opt-In Class One" constitutes an impermissible "fail-safe" class.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Defendant Trans Union LLC respectfully requests that this Court deny certification of the classes requested by Plaintiffs, deny all relief requested in Plaintiffs' Complaint, award Trans Union its costs of suit and expenses incurred herein (including its attorneys' fees), and grant such other and further relief to which Trans Union may show itself to be justly entitled.

Respectfully submitted,
